I wish to convey my warm thanks to Jennifer West of the Highland County District Library in Hillsboro for her help in obtaining many Highland County obituaries. My special thanks to Marianna Morgan of Chillicothe for providing various marriage records and obituaries including verifying Harry E. Limes' location of death and locating death information for Catherine Elizabeth Daugherty Sanders, the only daughter of Joseph Daugherty and Ann Dill Daugherty to survive to adulthood. In addition, Marianna's unfailing support for this Sheep – Pen Cemetery project has encouraged me to do the best work I can to present its history. My sincere thanks to M. Caroline Shaper, of Washington Court House, for her extensive efforts in obtaining several Fayette County obituaries. Also, I am grateful to Bettie Kerr Gray of Washington Court House; as well as Earlene Scott and Ron Coffey, both of Greenfield, Ohio, for their genuine interest and promotion of this compilation of the various Sheep – Pen Cemetery records.

Above all, I hope this account of the Sheep – Pen Cemetery gives us a look at the lives of those who found eternal peace and rest beneath the tall shady trees that still grace its gently sloping landscape of grass once kept neatly trimmed by grazing sheep.

Thank you to the following two Highland County gentlemen:

"CEMETERY INFO" "Recently I received an interesting email from Linda Ellis of Lyndhurst, Ohio offering to share information about the Sheep – Pen Cemetery, also known as the Limes or Gustin Cemetery near Greenfield that straddles the county line between Highland and Fayette. To my surprise, at least one Coffey is buried there, and Linda's information seems well organized and easily accessible for genealogists."

“The Aber Bulletin reads: "Matthew Aber was the third child of Abisha Aber and Abigail. He was born about 11 February 1793 and died 9 February 1859. While going through the Will Books of Greensburg, Pennsylvania, Courthouse, I ran across the will of Samuel Kenley dated 9 October 1816 and proved 13 December 1816. Mr. Kenley lists his brothers and sisters and one son whom he wishes to share in his estate. First on the list is a daughter: 1. Hannah Aber 2. John Kenley 3. Jean Kenley, etc.

This data should be of interest to descendants of Matthew Aber, son of Abisha and Abigale. At this early date of 1816 there was in Allegheny and Westmoreland Counties, Pennsylvania no other Aber married to a Hannah (last name unknown) or mentioned, except Abisha and Abigail Aber's son, Matthew." I hope this helps you. Perhaps you should try to get a copy of Samuel Kenley's will. Janet Aber English”

“The Orphans Court document I told you about names all of Abisha Aber's and Abigail Losey's children; however, just the married names of the daughters were mentioned. It does state that son Matthew resides in Ohio. This document is dated November 17, 1817 so Matthew was already there. The information I have lists both Matthew's and Hannah's birth dates as about 1793.

I have two other documents from descendants of Abisha and both documents list Hannah's maiden name as Kenley or Kenly.

As to finding out when they married, I'd start with Westmoreland County, in Greensburg, PA. Do you have birth dates and locations of any of their children? That information should give you some clues as to the approximate date. I would venture a guess that they married in Westmoreland County and then moved to Ohio.”

ABER, Matthew, of Madison Township, Date: Aug. 11, 1858. Wife, Hannah, children: Elmira, Samuel, Wilson, Charles, Eliza Simes, Julia Yohn. Executors: Wilson Aber, Harrison Limes. Witnesses: John Limes, Rutherford Collier. Proven Apr. 25, 1859. The Executors declined to administer the estate and the court appointed Thomas M. Brady Administrator W.W.A. Sureties: Rutherford Collier, John Limes. Appraisers: Rutherford Collier, William Irwin, Phillip McWilliams. The widow elected to take under the will.

Comment by Linda Jean Limes Ellis: Eliza “Simes” – Her married name was incorrectly spelled with an “S”. Eliza Limes was married to Harrison Limes. Harrison and Eliza Aber Limes are buried at the Cochran Cemetery in Perry Township, Fayette County, Ohio. Harrison Limes’ parents were William and Athaliah Doster Limes. William Limes was an older brother to Henry Limes buried at Sheep Pen Cemetery. Thus, Henry Limes was an uncle to Harrison Limes, Eliza Aber’s husband.

Wills, Administrations, Guardianships & Adoptions of Highland County, Ohio 1805- 1880 - McBride & McBride, 1957, reprinted 1994, page 269: “June 6, 1871. Thomas M. Sisters - Christina Beals Bennett and Priscilla Beals Rogers/Rodgers:

Christina Beals Bennett and Priscilla Beals Rogers were daughters of William Beals/Bales and Nancy Caldwell. Christina married Jesse K. Bennett and Priscilla married Joel Rogers. Their brother was Noble Beals.

The grandparents of Christina, Priscilla and Noble were William Beals and Priscilla Horton.

Their great-grandparents were Thomas Beals and Sarah Antrim. Thomas Beals was the famous Friends minister.

Christina Beals Bennett was born on September 1, 1815 and died on January 16, 1904. On September 4, 1848, Christina Beals married Jesse H. Bennett (page 3 of Fayette County Marriage Records Books B & C – 1831 – 1855 published by the Fayette County Genealogical Society); her name is typed as “Christena Bales.” Jesse H. Bennett was born in 1809 and died September 15, 1867.

Nancy C. Bennett, daughter of Jesse and Christina Beals Bennett was born October 24, 1849 and died on November 20, 1849 – age 27 days.

Priscilla Beals Rogers was born between 1810-1812 in Ohio and died January 14, 1841 in Fayette Co., Ohio. On August 4, 1831, Priscilla Beals married Joel Rogers (page 36 of Fayette County Marriage Records Books B & C – 1831 – 1855 published by the Fayette County Genealogical Society.)

Narrative about Col. William B. Rogers, son of Joel Rogers and Priscilla Beals.

“Joel Rogers, father of Colonel Rogers, grew up in Fayette county, was trained in pioneer surroundings, and after reaching manhood bought a piece of timbered land in Perry Township. The mother of Colonel Rogers was Priscilla Beals, who was born in Greene Township, Fayette County. William Beals; her father, was born in North Carolina, moved, to Tennessee, later to Ohio, where he early settled in Fayette County, and cleared a farm from the wilderness of what was later Perry Township. He died there at a good old age. He married Nancy Caldwell, a native of the North of Ireland and of Scotch stock. Her oldest brother inherited the family estate, sold out and brought other members of the family to America, settling in Highland County, Ohio. Priscilla Beals Rogers died at the age of twenty-nine, leaving four sons and two daughters, the latter then spending several years in the home of their grandparents before returning to their father. The latter did not marry again until his children were nearly all grown.”

Priscilla Beals Rogers, was the grandmother of Admiral Noble Edward Irwin. His parents were Lavinia/ Lavinia Rogers and Henry Irwin.

Obituary of Charles A. Crooks

Washington Herald, Washington C.H., Ohio, Friday, March 2, 1917, Volume 32, No. 52, page 4

"Death Claims Chas. A. Crooks" "It was a great shock to the community to learn shortly before noon Friday of the death of Mr. Charles A. Crooks well known business man of this city of the age of 58 years. About a month ago, Mr. Crooks succumbed to an attack of the grippe which developed into pneumonia. For several days he had been better and was hopeful of getting out soon so that the end came with great unexpectedness. . . .Mr. Crooks devoted many years of his life to teaching throughout the county and for some time was principal of the East Ead school. He brought the same conscientiousness to his school work that was characteristic of his every effort. He also engaged extensively in mercantile business and at the time of his death was the proprietor of a grocery store on the corner of E. Market and Forest Streets. Mr. Crooks had no lodge affiliations but was deeply devoted to his church, The First Presbyterian, and active in work of the Brotherhood Class. Mr. Crooks is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Bertha Gardner, one sister, Miss Belle Crooks, and one brother, Mr. W. L. Crooks, of New Martinsburg, who have the utmost sympathy in their loss. Funeral services will be held Monday beginning at ten o'clock at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Gage officiating. Burial will follow in the Limes Cemetery between Greenfield and New Martinsburg."

Looks like your assumption is correct. I looked at both marriage certificates. Joseph that married Ann Dill in 1857 was already 21 at the time of the marriage. The Joseph that married Louisa Jones in March 1860 was turning 20 years old the following week. It also mentioned that both his mother and father had passed away. If you'd like a copy of either of these certificates, they will be $2.00 a piece. I have to type a certified copy of these because Marriage Book 1 is in really bad shape and we can't make copies from it. Crista Creamer Fayette County Archives

Joseph Daugherty Sunday, January 24, 2010 10:27 AM
From: Hilda Hartling" <hhartling@yahoo.com>
To: LJELLIS_2000@Yahoo.com

"I did a bunch of looking, bought ancestry.com memberships, etc. Dad particularly wanted to know about James Daugherty and Eliza James, who were the parents of his grandfather, Alonzo Daugherty. Alonzo moved to McDonough county, Illinois, with his mother and an older brother, Henry, shortly after the Civil War. He married there (twice), raised his children and died in Colchester, Ill., in 1927.

Anyway, Alonzo was born in 1849 and he first appears in the 1850 census living with his mother, Eliza James Daugherty, her parents and siblings. I had a lot of fun trying to make sense of the James family and James and Eliza Daugherty's children. I have a marriage license for James and Eliza. As you know the 1830 and 1840 censuses are only marginally helpful.

There is mention of a James Daugherty in the Rufus Putnam book on Early Settlers and Settlement of Fayette County, Ohio (p. 77). I don't know if this is my James or not but there is a key sentence: "He left about 1850." What I found is that, by 1850, Eliza and her 1-year-old Alonzo were living with her parents and her older children were scattered. Her James Daugherty had either died or had "left."

According to my dad's Aunt Vera (one of Alonzo Daugherty's children by his second marriage), there were five Daugherty boys besides Alonzo. They all served in the Civil War: Joseph, John, Henry, William, David. There were also "some girls." John, Henry and William lived in Hancock and/or McDonough counties, Illinois, after the war. David went to Iowa.

And Joseph? See the attached letter from Mrs. Shaper, who was a researcher for the Fayette County Records and Archives Center. I do know that there is some connection with the Limes family (Joseph Daugherty was a laborer for Henry Limes in the 1850 census) and some of Eliza James Daugherty's ancestors.

I really need to get back on track with this project. Dad is 88 and doing very well (he and my mother drove to Naples, Fla., over the weekend to visit her brother). I am hoping that I can plan a few days to go to Fayette county in late May. My husband and I plan to attend a wedding in Pennsylvania at that time.

Hilda Daugherty Hartling

Lohman, Mo.?"

Per her death certificate, "Mrs. Ann Reese" formerly Ann Dill Daugherty was born March 9, 1841 in Fayette County, Ohio to Michael Dill and Elizabeth (Harrison?). She died in Fairfield Township, Highland County, Ohio on January 31, 1914. Her cause of death was pulmonary tuberculosis. The J. M. Murray Funeral Home in Greenfield handled her arrangements. Date of burial was February 2, 1914. Place of burial listed only as Greenfield, however, no tombstone transcription or written record has been located to document her burial at the Greenfield Cemetery. My thought is that she might have been buried at Sheep – Pen Cemetery.

The only daughter of Joseph and Ann Dill Daugherty to survive to adulthood was Catherine Elizabeth (AKA Libbie/Libby) Daugherty. Per her death certificate, she died as Elizabeth Sanders; widow of Alvin Sanders. Catherine Elizabeth was born June 10, 1861 in Fayette County, Ohio to Joseph "Doherty" of Fayette County, Ohio and Ann Dill, also of Fayette County. She died at the Columbus State Hospital on March 27, 1944. Catherine Elizabeth Daugherty Sanders was buried at the Pontius Chapel Cemetery in Pickaway County, Ohio, per her death record.

On March 7, 2010, I researched the website of "Footnote.com," where I found a Widow's Pension, Certificate No. WC 21636, for Ann Daugherty Rees. The papers state that Joseph Daugherty died on February 6, 1863 at a hospital near Vicksburg, Mississippi from "Measles" and "Ensiphelas" [sic]. Eliza Ellen Daugherty was born April 23, 1859. Catherine Elizabeth (Libbie – see page 818 of History of Fayette County) was born June 10, 1861, and Nancy Josephine was born April 29, 1863. Eliza Ellen Daugherty died October 4, 1863. Nancy Josephine died March 21, 1864. Thus, only Catherine Elizabeth lived to adulthood. In Ann's Widow's Pension records, Elizabeth Sanders is shown as her mother's caretaker who handled her mother's funeral arrangements. Because of this, I feel there is a strong possibility that Ann Dill Daugherty Rees may have been buried next to her first husband, Joseph Daugherty, and their two young daughters at the Sheep - Pen Cemetery. Thus, I have placed her as a tentative burial at Sheep - Pen Cemetery.

William R. Irwin, Sr., and Margaret McCormack/McCormick Irwin:

Highland Pioneer Sketches & Family Genealogies by Elsie John Ayres – page 463 covers the Irwin Family of William and Margaret McCormack Irwin. “William and Margaret McCormack Irwin were married in 1796 before emigrating to America. They lived in the East for a time before emigrating to Ross Co. In 1817 they took up a farm in Madison Twp., north of Greenfield. The two genial natives of Old Ireland were loved by the entire region. He served in the War of 1812 and survived until 1858, his wife died in 1855. They were buried in the Gustin Cemetery.”

“William Irwin and his wife, Margaret McCormick, whom he had then just married, came from Ireland to America in 1798, and after remaining for two yrs. near the seaboard, pushed their way westward, and finally chose a location in Buckskin township, of Ross county.

They had only a hundred and fifty dollars, or rather its equivalent in guineas, when they arrived in the United States, and but little more than that sum when they came to Ohio. Mr. Irwin gave seventy-five dollars for fifty acres of land in Buckskin, and after remaining there until 1811, removed to Paint township. of the same county, and purchased one hundred and seven acres of land for the same amount of money he had expended in his first purchase.

In 1817 he removed from Paint to Madison township, Highland County, and this time purchased two hundred and sixty-four acres of land for seventy-five dollars, the same being the farm on which his son John now resides. He lived at this farm until his death, in 1857, in the eighty-fourth year of his age, he having been born in 1773. His wife died September 9, 1855. He was a genuine Irishman, energetic, impetuous, and gallant, fond of anecdote and story, witty and rollicking. He was a man at once of excellent character and of very peculiar characteristics.

Although he did not accumulate, through his industry, a large property, he still had sufficient to enable him to give each of his children a small farm.

He was married in 1798, his wife being as we have already said, Margaret McCormick. They were the parents of ten children who grew to maturity and one who died as an infant. Their names were Eliza (Mrs. Noah McVey), John, Susan (Mrs. James Gusten), William, Nancy (Mrs. John McMullen), Robert, Sally (Mrs. Patterson Coffee), Alfred, Margaret (Mrs. Simeon Taylor), and Thomas. All are now deceased except John, Nancy, who resides in Illinois, and Margaret, who lives in Paint township, Ross county.”

Nancy Gadbury Irwin – Second wife of William Irwin, Jr., buried at the Greenfield Cemetery:

Mortuary - from the Greenfield Republican” – Thursday, October 31, 1907, page 7 (?):

“Mrs. Nancy Gadbury Irwin, widow of William Irwin, died on Monday, at the home of C. S. Powell, on West Jefferson Street, age 82 years. Funeral was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. Powell, conducted by Rev. Dr. Crothers. Interment in Greenfield cemetery.”

Obituary of Nancy A. Gadbury Irwin that ran in the Greenfield Republican on Thursday, November 7, 1907 on page 6:

“Memoir” – “Nancy A. Gadbury was born near Chillicothe, Ohio, January 9, 1825; died in Greenfield, Ohio, October 28, 1907, aged 82 years, 9 months, and 19 days.

She was united in marriage to William Irwin, August 5, 1846. To this union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters, three of whom are still living, the husband departing this life December 20, 1866.

For fifty-five years she, with her husband, resided on a farm four miles northwest of Greenfield, where the family was reared to manhood and womanhood.

She came to Greenfield about six years ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Rose Powell, who has been untiring in ministering to her every want in her declining years, and in bestowing upon her every comfort and attention that loving hands and kindness could bestow.

Early in life she united with the M. E. church; she was a devoted mother, and a kind neighbor, being highly esteemed for her many virtues, always mindful and solicitous for the welfare of her children. About ten years ago her eyesight began to fail, which resulted in a total privation of sight, about six years ago. She was possessed of a happy and agreeable disposition, always delighted in meeting her old friends and acquaintances, having a cheerful and hopeful word for all. Never murmuring or complaining of her sightless vision, but bearing this with other afflictions with patience and perfect resignation.

For the past year, her general health was apparently good for one of her advanced years. Her long life crowned as it was by a peaceful ending, furnishes a striking example of life’s higher significance.

Her last illness was of brief duration, and when in the early dawn - when the summons came she was ready to answer.

In the sorrow of parting there is joy in the thought that she has gone where the sightless eyes will open to the glorious light of an eternal day.”

HENRY LIMES OBITUARY
JULY 29, 1842
AS IT APPEARS IN THE METHODIST PUBLICATION:
WESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE
HENRY LIMES WAS A BROTHER TO WILLIAM AND HARMON (JR.) LIMES

Brother Henry Limes was born July 15, 1786, in Virginia, and died January 30, 1842, of pulmonary consumption, near Greenfield, Highland county, O. He experienced religion about fifteen years ago in family prayer, having joined the Methodist Episcopal Church the same day. He lingered long, not having been able to work for two years before he died, and for the last four months of his sickness was confined to his bed most of the time. A short time before he died, he told a friend he had some time previous experienced the blessing of sanctification, but he had not professed it until that time.
O. P. WILLIAMS.
Washington, O., July 5, 1842.

Henry Limes' full obituary above states his cause of death was due to pulmonary consumption. His obituary describes him as "Brother Henry Limes" because he had been a Methodist class leader for several years. His name appears in the records during the time span of 1811 to 1837 in the "Paint Creek – Washington Circuit Quarterly Conference Book" which is located at the Beeghly Library at Ohio Wesleyan University, and was microfilmed by the LDS Library in Utah. He was listed as a Class Leader during the years between 1834 and 1837. In 1836, he was listed as serving as an Exhorter.

There is a record of a "Limes Meeting House" in 1854. It is thought to have been located near the Sheep - Pen Cemetery. There are also records of a "Limes School" that once existed in this general vicinity of the cemetery.

The Sheep - Pen Cemetery records have January 31, 1842 as Henry Limes' date of death (his tombstone shows 55 yrs. and 6 months). His obituary shows his date of death as January 30, 1842.

Henry Limes had one older brother, William (1778 - 1863); a younger brother, Harmon Jr. (1791 - 1861); and one sister, Margaret, who married Joshua Bishop in 1806 in Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia.

Henry and his wife, Hannah Limes, as well as their children, were all buried in the Sheep - Pen Cemetery.

1820 U. S. Census Ohio Green Township Fayette County Series M33 Roll 92, page 47, William, Henry and Harmon Jr. Limes are living next to each other. Perry Township did not yet exist.

Henry was married to Hannah Nolan. Date and location of their marriage are unknown. Hannah died on November 3, 1863 at age 73 yrs., 2 months and 24 days. Per Henry Limes' Will and other sources, their children were:

JULIA ANN LIMES OBITUARY
JULY 29, 1842
AS IT APPEARS IN THE METHODIST PUBLICATION:
WESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE
JULIA ANN WAS A SISTER TO JOHN, HIRAM, MARIA, MARGARET, AND REBECCA LIMES

JULIA ANN LIMES, daughter of brother Henry Limes, deceased, followed her father just four months after he died, viz. on the 30th of May. She fell by the same disease that took him off. She, like her father, was found ready to meet her last foe. She experienced religion about eleven years since, and subsequently lost the satisfactory evidence of her acceptance with her God; but on her death-bed she was reclaimed. She was fearful of being deceived, and although evidently engaged, was not fully satisfied that she was prepared for death, until a few days before she departed. O. P. WILLIAMS.
Washington, O., July 5, 1842.

Above, obituary for Julia Ann Limes, daughter of Henry and Hannah Nolan Limes who never married.

Fayette County Record

Thursday, January 28, 1904, BC Armstrong Edition, Manager, page 4 – Vol. 4, No. 4:

DEATH'S RECORD. Miss Rebecca Limes

“Miss Rebecca Limes, an old and well-known resident of the county, died at 12:30 o'clock Friday morning at the residence of C. A. Crooks, on Dayton Avenue. The deceased has been an invalid from paralysis, suffering her first stroke about twelve years ago. She was, however, able to be up and around the house until the Sunday preceding her death, when her affliction became aggravated, affecting her internal organism. The deceased was aged seventy-nine years and was a native of this county, having been born and raised in Perry Township. She was a great aunt of Mrs. Crooks, with whom she made her home for a number of years. She leaves one sister, Margaret Limes, aged eight-one years, who also resides at the home of Mr. Crooks, and who has herself been ill with the grip for some time past. The funeral services were observed at the residence Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, following which the remains were conveyed to Greenfield for interment.”

DEATHS.

LIMES

“Rebecca Limes died at the home of her nephew, Charles A. Crooks, Friday, January 22 of paralysis. She was born in Fayette County, the youngest daughter of Henry and Hannah Limes, April 5, 1822. For several years she has made her home with Mr. Crooks, and was known to many of our citizens. Funeral services were held from Mr. Crook's residence Sunday.

The Fayette County Record

Thursday, January 28, 1904, page 2 under heading: “New Martinsburg”

“Miss Rebecca Limes, who died in Washington last week, was buried in Limes Cemetery Sunday at 1 o'clock. The funeral at the grave was conducted by Rev. Collier, of Greenfield. She was aged seventy-six years and was formerly an old resident near this place, having moved to Washington a few years ago.”

Rebecca Limes' Fayette County death entry shows date of death of January 10, 1904 at age 78 yrs., 8 months and 14 days. However, her obituaries strongly show that her date of death was January 22, 1904. Her tombstone and 1900 census also show her birth year was 1825 and not 1822, as the Cyclone and Fayette Republican obituary reported.

Arnott was the daughter of Matthew and Mary Arnott. The tombstone of Leslie O. Limes shows September 16, 1939 as his death date, however, his newspaper obituary appears on the front page of the September 7, 1939 Greenfield Daily Times as having died that day. They are buried in the Greenfield Cemetery in Greenfield, Ohio.

Catherine, Ada, and Alice Limes are all buried at the Sheep - Pen Cemetery in Fayette/Highland County, Ohio.

“Local relatives were notified of the death of Mrs. Laura Limes Brock, a former local resident and the daughter of James M. and Emma Lowden Limes. She was survived by a son, Clifford, of Springfield, where his mother had lived for several years. Service was held in the Murray Funeral Home, Tuesday, Rev. Robert Blaine, officiating.”

Laura Limes Brock was divorced from Frederick C. AKA Fred Brock at the time of her death. Per his death certificate, he was born July 5, 1874 in Paint Township. His parents were Samuel Brock also born in Paint Township. His mother was Ellen Matthews who was born in Perry Township. Fred Brock was a night clerk at the Pennsylvania Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio at the time of his death on July 10, 1943. He died at the Cleveland City Hospital from bronchial pneumonia.

Harry E. Limes died on September 20, 1948 at the Scroggie Nursing Home in Greenfield, Ohio. His wife, Ida Stevens (shown as Stephens on her death certificate) Limes, died July 13, 1946 and was buried at Evergreen Cemetery in Tucson, Arizona. Her parents are listed as Humphry and Susan Stephens, both born in Ohio. Harry E. Limes' obituary lists Bessie Limes of Greenfield, Mrs. Laura Brock, and J. Henry Limes as surviving sisters and one brother. Harry E. Limes' tombstone shows a birth date of March 12, 1885, however, his death certificate states he was born on March 12, 1891, age 57 years, 6 months and 8 days. Due to the 1900 Census showing his birth as March, 1885, and his tombstone inscribed as March 12, 1885 as date of birth, the preponderance of evidence points to his birth date being March 12, in 1885 rather than in 1891.

Eliza Irwin McVey died about 1841, if the incomplete entry in Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio by David N. and Jane N. McBride, 1954, on page 362, is her entry. It states: “Ele???? D. (Aug. ?) 18 (41?), a 37 – (1?) – 15.” That would place her date of birth about 1803/1804. The book lists Noah (elder), his son, “N.T” (Civil War veteran), Alfred L. and “Ele????” all together under the name spelling of McVay. Eliza is gone by the 1850 census.

With the spelling of McVey on page 362 Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio the following children are listed:

Thomas , Infant, Ataska, and Anice A. all being shown as children of “I. M. and M.” (Isaac Milton and Martha McVay/McVey). Thus, these were grandchildren of Noah and Eliza Irwin McVay/McVey. These children all died young and their parents outlived them. Their burials were buried at Sheep - Pen Cemetery near their grandparents.

From: The Press - Gazette – Hillsboro, Ohio – Tuesday, October 13, 1970 – page 5: “Joseph H. Penwell” – Greenfield – Funeral services for Joseph H. Penwell, 20, Greenfield, were held Sunday at 2 P.M. at the Anderson-Strueve Funeral Home. Rev. Charles Snyder officiated and burial was in Madison Township Cemetery.

Penwell was fatally wounded from a shotgun blast at a home near Portland, Ind., Tuesday night, October 6.

Born June 12, 1950, in Bourneville, he was the son of Benjamin H. and Mary O'Connor Penwell. He was employed as a timber worker. He was a member of the Greenfield Christian Community church.

Surviving are his wife, Katherine; his father, Benjamin Penwell, Lyndon Rt. 1; his mother, Mrs. Cecil (Mary) Benson, Greenfield; three sisters, Mrs. Woodford (Evelyn) Briscoe, Lyndon Rt.1, Virginia Penwell, Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Rick (Nora) Daugherty, Greenfield; a half sister, Betty Benson, Greenfield; seven brothers, Fred A. He was predeceased by a brother and a sister.”

Abstracted from the Anderson Herald, Anderson, Indiana, Thursday, October 8, 1970 – page 35 – “‘Siege Tactics’ Slaying Depicted” – “Porter, Ind. (AP) – “It must have been like a siege,” a sheriff’s deputy said Wednesday as Porter County and state police detectives made a joint investigation into the killing of Joseph H. Penwell, 20, of Chesterton. The young man was slain Tuesday night by a shotgun blast at the window in the home of Mr. Morris Buzalski, Chesterton florist, on a thinly settled fringe of Porter.

Penwell’s brother, William, 25, of Chesterton, was arrested by George Early, criminal investigator for the Porter County sheriff’s office, when William went into a hospital to inquire about his brother.

Joseph Penwell was found fatally wounded outside the house. Sheriff’s deputies said they were told he had lived in Greenfield, Ohio, until recently and had come to Chesterton to look for a job. Leonard Wetmore, Port County coroner, said the Buzalski house was sealed temporarily during the investigation. He said he would not return a verdict until after receiving results of tests for alcohol in the dead man’s blood.

“I have not recommended that any charges be filed,” Wetmore said.”

UNLOCKING THE SECRETS OF SHEEP - PEN CEMETERY

by Linda Jean Limes Ellis
April, 2010

WHAT'S THE REAL NAME?

Sheep - Pen Cemetery is a pioneer southern Ohio burying ground long known by various names since its earliest burials began in the mid 1830s. Those who have researched its history have come to learn that Sheep - Pen Cemetery (and its slight variation of "Sheep Pen") has been popularly called "Limes" (also "Old Limes") or "Gustin Cemetery" by both local residents and interested persons from afar.

Fayette County, Ohio records often support calling it "Limes" or "Old Limes" Cemetery, ("Old Limes Cemetery is shown on page 96 of the Cemetery Plat Book – 1924 by Peggy Gilmore), however, the 2005 Highland County, Ohio Engineer Map designates it as "Gustin Cemetery."

According to the book Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio, compiled by David N. and Jane N. McBride, copyright 1954, on page 361, under the cemetery name "Gustin": "It is known as the Sheep Pen Cemetery." "This name is very unusual and residents of the vicinity say that the name was acquired because sheep were often placed there to graze."

The cemetery's own bright green metal marker bolted on the front fence unmistakably proclaims it to be: "Sheep - Pen Cemetery Madison Twp Greenfield, OH." The cemetery's marker can be likened to an official birth certificate and all the authenticity it conveys. Thus, the 'nod' goes to "Sheep - Pen" or the slight variation of "Sheep Pen."

WHERE'S THE LOCATION?

The sloping Sheep - Pen Cemetery straddles the Fayette/Highland County, Ohio boundary line. When driving easterly from New Martinsburg toward Greenfield on the Greenfield-Sabina Road, the cemetery entrance is on the right via a short and narrow semi-circular graveled roadway that connects back onto the Greenfield-Sabina Road (County Highway 5 in Fayette County which becomes County Highway 98 in Highland County.) The coordinates are "latitude 39.3767304 and longitude -83.4246385," per the website: hometownlocator.com. This access roadway is almost opposite where the "Highland Co." - and shorter "Leaving Fayette County" - signs are staked in next to each other on the Greenfield-Sabina Road.

Quoting from the Sheep - Pen Cemetery's introduction in Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio, page 361: "This small cemetery is enclosed by a wire fence and is situated close to the Highland and Fayette County line." "On October 24, 1828, in Original Book "R", page 123, Highland County Deed Records, William Gustin and Hannah his wife deeded to William Collins and Henry Limes of the County of Fayette and William Pierson, Thomas G. Collins of the County of Highland, Trustees, one and one-eighth acre situated in Madison Township, Highland County, Ohio."

This source further states: "... that they shall build or cause to be erected and built thereon a house or place of worship for the use of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church..."

The location is described as "...part of a tract of 1466 2/3 acres numbered as survey 6938 and granted to Samuel McKee assignee of James Gilmore by patent bearing date April 13, 1812."

However, on December 20, 1900, (Original Book 94, page 210), ownership of this property was turned over to both Highland County's Madison Township and Fayette County's Perry Township Trustees for the sole purpose of burials.

To date, no documentation has been found that supports the statement that a church was ever built on the property.
